Pieces of the Frame is a gathering of memorable writings by one of the greatest journalists and storytellers of our time. They take the reader from the backwoods roads of Georgia, to the high altitude of Ruidoso Downs in New Mexico; from the social decay of Atlantic City, to Scotland, where a pilgrimage for art's sake leads to a surprising encounter with history on a hilltop with a view of a fifth of the entire country. McPhee's writing is more than informative; these are stories, artful and full of character, that make compelling reading. They play with and against one another, so that Pieces of the Frame is distinguished as much by its unity as by its variety. Subjects familiar to McPhee's readers-sports, Scotland, conservation-are treated here with intimacy and a sense of the writer at work. #1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • Brené Brown has taught us what it means to dare greatly, rise strong, and brave the wilderness. Now, based on new research conducted with leaders, change makers, and culture shifters, she's showing us how to put those ideas into practice so we can step up and lead. Don't miss the five-part HBO Max docuseries Brené Brown: Atlas of the Heart! NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY BLOOMBERG Leadership is not about titles, status, and wielding power. A leader is anyone who takes responsibility for recognizing the potential in people and ideas, and has the courage to develop that potential. When we dare to lead, we don't pretend to have the right answers; we stay curious and ask the right questions. We don't see power as finite and hoard it; we know that power becomes infinite when we share it with others. We don't avoid difficult conversations and situations; we lean into vulnerability when it's necessary to do good work. But daring leadership in a culture defined by scarcity, fear, and uncertainty requires skill-building around traits that are deeply and uniquely human. The irony is that we're choosing not to invest in developing the hearts and minds of leaders at the exact same time as we're scrambling to figure out what we have to offer that machines and AI can't do better and faster. What can we do better? Empathy, connection, and courage, to start. Four-time #1 New York Times bestselling author Brené Brown has spent the past two decades studying the emotions and experiences that give meaning to our lives, and the past seven years working with transformative leaders and teams spanning the globe. She found that leaders in organizations ranging from small entrepreneurial startups and family-owned businesses to nonprofits, civic organizations, and Fortune 50 companies all ask the same question: How do you cultivate braver, more daring leaders, and how do you embed the value of courage in your culture? In this new book, Brown uses research, stories, and examples to answer these questions in the no-BS style that millions of readers have come to expect and love. Brown writes, "One of the most important findings of my career is that daring leadership is a collection of four skill sets that are 100 percent teachable, observable, and measurable. It's learning and unlearning that requires brave work, tough conversations, and showing up with your whole heart. Easy? No. Because choosing courage over comfort is not always our default. Worth it? Always. We want to be brave with our lives and our work. It's why we're here." Whether you've read Daring Greatly and Rising Strong or you're new to Brené Brown's work, this book is for anyone who wants to step up and into brave leadership. This workbook takes you through a series of activities that will help you to gather information about your self and condense it into the format required to complete your UCAS personal statement for university. You will use a seven step process that will help you create a compelling personal statement. About the author Alex J Bent is an experienced University Counsellor who guides international students in all areas of their UK university applications. Working primarily with students from the International Baccalaureate and A-Level programmes, he has shown success in guiding students of all levels: whether applying to the UK's most prestigious institutions, specialist and niche courses, or foundation programmes, Alex's students typically receive offers from almost all courses applied to via UCAS. This book will help aspiring undergraduates through the competitive admissions process for some of the world's top universities. It will help prospective candidates answer a very specific question: what makes a successful personal statement? Using a collection of real-life personal statements from students recently accepted into Cambridge University across all subjects, the authors provide a behind-the-scenes look into what it takes to be admitted into a top academic institution. The result is a book that offers a rare insight into the often opaque and complex thought-process that goes into accepting or rejecting a candidate and provides a benchmark for all students looking to study at top universities around the world. One of a number of selection tools that is used by university Admissions Tutors to make offers to applicants is the UCAS Personal Statement. Since the majority of universities will not interview, the Personal Statement may be the applicants' only opportunity to sell themselves. Competition is often strong which means that producing a quality UCAS Personal Statement is vital. This booklet has been written in a simple to understand way. You are told everything you need to know in order to produce a quality UCAS Personal Statement for English Courses. The booklet directs you through an easy to follow format. If you are searching for a topic idea, this book has 50 of them. Writing an amazing college admission essay is easier than you think! So you're a high school senior given the task of writing a 650-word personal statement for your college application. Do you tell the story of your life, or a story from your life? Do you choose a single moment? If so, which one? The options seem endless. Lucky for you, they're not. College counselor Ethan Sawyer (aka The College Essay Guy) will show you that there are only four (really, four!) types of college admission essays. And all you have to do to figure out which type is best for you is answer two simple questions: 1. Have you experienced significant challenges in your life? 2. Do you know what you want to be or do in the future? With these questions providing the building blocks for your essay, Sawyer guides you through the rest of the process, from choosing a structure to revising your essay, and answers the big questions that have probably been keeping you up at night: How do I brag in a way that doesn't sound like bragging? and How do I make my essay, like, deep? Packed with tips, tricks, exercises, and sample essays from real students who got into their dream schools, College Essay Essentials is the only college essay guide to make this complicated process logical, simple, and (dare we say it?) a little bit fun. Read award-winning journalist Frank Bruni's New York Times bestseller: an inspiring manifesto about everything wrong with today's frenzied college admissions process and how to make the most of your college years. Over the last few decades, Americans have turned college admissions into a terrifying and occasionally devastating process, preceded by test prep, tutors, all sorts of stratagems, all kinds of rankings, and a conviction among too many young people that their futures will be determined and their worth established by which schools say yes and which say no. In Where You Go is Not Who You'll Be, Frank Bruni explains why this mindset is wrong, giving students and their parents a new perspective on this brutal, deeply flawed competition and a path out of the anxiety that it provokes. Bruni, a bestselling author and a columnist for the New York Times, shows that the Ivy League has no monopoly on corner offices, governors' mansions, or the most prestigious academic and scientific grants. Through statistics, surveys, and the stories of hugely successful people, he demonstrates that many kinds of colleges serve as ideal springboards. And he illuminates how to make the most of them. What matters in the end are students' efforts in and out of the classroom, not the name on their diploma. Where you go isn't who you'll be. Americans need to hear that--and this indispensable manifesto says it with eloquence and respect for the real promise of higher education. The admissions process for law, business, medical, or graduate school is more competitive today than ever before. Peterson's How to Write the Perfect Personal Statement provides essential tips on how to create and write personal statements that respond to the questions that appear on the applications of many popular graduate schools. The guide also offers great insight on whom to approach for letters of recommendation and how to make the best impression at the interview. How to Write the Perfect Personal Statement features 30 actual samples of successful application essays as well as recommendations from admissions officers on winning strategies that have guaranteed students admission into business, law, medical, and graduate school. How to Write the Perfect Personal Statement offers step-by-step instructions on style, format, concept, and theme; preparation strategies for the personal interview; tactics on whom to ask to write letters of recommendation; top 10 DOs and DON'Ts for writing the essay; tips from admission officials from Columbia, Michigan, and other high-profile schools; and much more! About the Book Who says writing a personal statement must be stressful? Everyone definitely has a story to tell - whether it is about how they first developed an interest in science, what has continued to fuel their excitement for this subject, or what inspired them to read a STEM degree. I, essentially, would like to help you convey that passion in your personal statement. In this book, you'll be introduced to various tips and tricks which can help you stand out as an applicant within 4,000 characters. The whole idea is to show you how simple (and fun!) the writing process can be. What This Book Covers How to Write a Winning UCAS Personal Statement for STEM Subjects offers an easy step-by-step guide to help you persuade the admissions tutors that you are a perfect match for the university's STEM-related course. By the end of this book, you should hopefully have developed an idea on how to: Make an unforgettable entrance to your personal statement Structure your personal statement in a clear and coherent manner Make your content stand out further End your personal statement on a high note But wait, there's more! Each chapter of this book is loaded with examples of personal statements written by successful students as part of their application to top Russell Group universities, such as the University of Oxford, Imperial College London, University College London, and the University of Edinburgh. Meanwhile, to not provide any more spoilers - if you enjoy reading comics, you're in for a good treat! About the Author Bianca Khor holds a Bachelor of Science (Honours) in Biochemistry from Imperial College London. Prior to entering university, she grew up in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia and completed her A Levels in Kolej Tuanku Ja'afar, where she was awarded the Overall Academic Excellence Book Prize within her cohort. She is now a writer and is passionate about travelling, stories, and finding ways to give back to the community. Written by experts in communication and medical recruitment, this book explains what medical school admissions tutors are really looking for and how to get yourself noticed by writing a powerful and memorable personal statement. This guide demystifies critical aspects of the admissions process for graduate and professional schools by providing insight into how to write personal statements, whom to approach for letters of recommendation, and how to make the best impression at the interview. "Savanna Perry, PA-C walks you through the essential steps of making your personal statement stand out. You will learn to showcase who you are in a way that will leave your admissions committee reader excited to meet you." Adapted from back cover How to Write a Personal Statement will revolutionise the way you think about your university application. Written in collaboration with teachers, private tutors, and Cambridge University admissions staff, this book provides the ultimate guide to mastering your university personal statement. Our simple yet highly effective personal statement template, the 'five step formula', will ensure you achieve your highest potential in your UCAS application. Whilst this book concentrates on the UCAS personal statement and UK university applications, the formula will be equally as effective when applying for most US and other international universities. Personal Statement Examples The most unique aspect of this book is the way in which it presents real personal statement examples. The example personal statements presented here allowed the students that wrote them to achieve offers from some of the world's best universities, including Cambridge, UCL, and LSE. However, this does not simply present example statements, but it critically analyses them, showing exactly what each student did well, and what each student failed to do. Through the combination of personal statement structure and real student examples, we believe this book offers a quick and easy guide to personal statement writing. Personal Statement Template The '5 Step Formula' template in this book is based around the 5 paragraphs every personal statement should have in order to be successful. Each of these paragraphs is covered in a different chapter of the book, with chapter 9 offering a summary of the '5 Step Formula' to ensure you are using the best personal statement structure. About the Author Jonty Purvis is a Cambridge University graduate, bestselling education author, and full-time private tutor. After working with students for many years, he established a very simple personal statement structure that saw his students achieve offers from top universities every single time. He then collaborated with teachers and admissions tutors from Cambridge to publish this book, aiming to provide students with the best UCAS personal statement template on the market. This book covers the following personal statement tips: How to start a personal statement How to structure a personal statement Personal statement conclusions How to write a personal statement for masters Medicine personal statement template Medicine personal statement examples Geography personal statement examples Economics personal statement examples UCAS personal statement advice And much more! If you are interested in quickly learning how to write an expert personal statement, then purchase this book now! If you are looking for more information on personal statement templates or want more personal statement examples, then visit this website: <https://revisionhive.com/> THINGS FALL APART tells two overlapping, intertwining stories, both of which center around Okonkwo, a "strong man" of an Ibo village in Nigeria. The first of these stories traces Okonkwo's fall from grace with the tribal world in which he lives, and in its classical purity of line and economical beauty it provides us with a powerful fable about the immemorial conflict between the individual and society. The second story, which is as modern as the first is ancient, and which elevates the book to a tragic plane, concerns the clash of cultures and the destruction of Okonkwo's world through the arrival of aggressive, proselytizing European missionaries. These twin dramas are perfectly harmonized, and they are modulated by an awareness capable of encompassing at once the life of nature, human history, and the mysterious compulsions of the soul. THINGS FALL APART is the most illuminating and permanent monument we have to the modern African experience as seen from within.
